1. What is the most important element of successful catechesis (hint: it is not the materials).
 2. What were your thoughts when Bill declared that a “sacrificial, self-giving presence” is the “hook” to knowledge of the love of the Father? Who has been that presence to you in your faith journey?
 3. Who are the children/young adults in your life? Can you share an example of ministering to them in this manner (sacrificial, self-giving presence)? Do you have new insights that you plan to use in the future?
 4. Bill claimed that the “basis of holiness is desire for the joy of relationship” (with our heavenly Father). Do you agree? Please explain.
 5. On page 2 of the handout, there is a section called “seeing your child for real,” (subheadings are: mind, heart, soul and path). Which of these was most meaningful to you? Why?
