Faith is a Process

Paige Rien

When you look at the Crucifix, you understand how much Jesus loved you then.
When you look at the Sacred Host,
you understand how much He loves you now.
~ St. Teresa of Calcutta.

1. What did you find most interesting about this talk? (e.g. being a magnet to attract others to God)

2. Paige shared her original view of a “PIOUS” woman named Stephanie and how she ultimately became “Stephanie.”
 - Were you able to relate to that kind of radical change in perspective evolving over time? Explain.

3. Paige said her faith journey was a “PROCESS” – it was like having all the ingredients here, there, and everywhere with yeast bubbling and dough proofing and somehow, over the years, they finally come together to make bread.
 - How did her past addictions, the 12-step program, dabbling in other religions, and the love and support of her women’s group lead her to feeling so at home in the Catholic Church?
 - Based on her experiences, did you learn anything that might help someone you know gravitate to the Catholic Church and feel the love of Christ and the community of believers?

4. Paige explained how her faith life and her career transitioned from being two “SILOS” to fully “INTEGRATED.”
 - As you have matured in your faith, have you noticed the synergy of it seeping into other aspects of your life?
 - Explain how your faith may have seeped into your work, relationships, and even leisure time / entertainment?
