Be the Woman God is Calling You to Be:
Conquering Low Performance Purgatory with Faith-Powered Productivity

Beth Tran

*And remember, I am with you always,
to the end of the age. ~ Matthew 28:20*

1. What did you find most interesting about this talk?

Did any of the questions in the handout help you to broaden your thinking on this subject?

2. Beth reminded us that HUMILITY is not self-loathing or pride. Rather, it is TRUTH. True humility is seeing ourselves the way God sees us. He sees us completely, including all of our shortcomings and failures and every sin. Yet, at the same time, He is crazy in love with each of us!! Not only does God love us, He also EQUIPS us to do His will, and all we need to do is depend on His GRACE, which gives us peace and joy.

- Did the definition of humility surprise you? How can you incorporate true humility into your spirit?
- How did it make you feel that even though God sees your failures and sins, He is still crazy in love with you?
- Since God has equipped you to do His will, is there anything you have discerned He would like you to do now?

3. Beth suggested that we are each called to "BOLD ACTION." She reminded us of two quotes:

- Pope Benedict XVI: "The world will offer you comfort, but you are not made for comfort, you are made for GREATNESS"
- St. Catherine of Siena: "Be who you were created to be, and you will set the world on FIRE"

- Knowing that everyone is created with unique gifts and talents, have you discovered your gifts & are using them?
- If you feel like you have not yet discovered your gifts, or are not yet using them effectively for the Glory of God, what did you learn from this talk on how to intentionally take steps to discover and use them?

4. Beth suggested that we ask ourselves the following question every day...

"Today am I being the woman that I have BECOME or am I choosing to be the woman that I am BECOMING?"

- How can this shift in focus from the PAST to the FUTURE help us to see & become God's finished Masterpiece ... the one ready to enter the Kingdom of Heaven?
- How can you more effectively: 1) light your way at a crossroad, 2) shed the masks that no longer serve you and/or 3) envision what this journey could unveil for you?
