and you fed me.
I was thirsty, and
you gave me
a drink.*

Moms
Know
Best!

The child's family becomes part of the Unbound community.

Mothers or guardians of sponsored children join small support groups and often become leaders by serving their communities and planning program activities.

The child's family prioritizes what they need most and how they will use your financial support.

Local staff, including social workers, listen and identify how Unbound can help them achieve their goals.

Families typically prioritize education and needs like food, housing, and health care.
